

What is design?

Design is the way in which something is created for its usability or aesthetic purpose. From a shoe to a building to a website.

What is journalism?

Journalism is the uncovering of truths behind closed doors and unearthing stories from what is happening in the world. It is also a way to keep the public informed on whatever stories they wish to follow.

What is design for journalists?

It is the creation of platforms for journalists in a way that is creative, engaging, and aesthetically pleasing.

How did you design this page? Why?

Though using Word I decided to give homage to the genius that is George Lucas and his iconic Star Wars scrolling script (without the scrolling). Using a black background, yellow colored and News Gothic font.
